IMPORTANT NOTICE TO THE DEFENDANTS

This Order prohibits you from doing certain acts. You should read this Order very carefully. You are advised to consult a solicitor as soon as possible. You have the right to apply to the court to vary or discharge this Order (which is explained below).

AND UPON the Claimants' application for an injunction dated 15 January 2025 (the "Application")

AND UPON the making of injunctions by Order dated 16 January 2025 by Mrs Justice Collins Rice (the "Collins Rice J Order") which was continued by Order dated 20 January 2025 by Mr Justice Fordham (the "First Fordham J Order"), both of which are available at www.morrisons-corporate.com/injunction

AND UPON the making of injunctions by Order dated 21 January 2025 by Mr Justice Fordham, which was amended on 24 January 2025 (the "Second Fordham J Order")

AND UPON reading the Application and the witness statements filed in support of it (the "Witness Statements")

AND UPON hearing Leading and Junior Counsel for the Claimants at the return date of 29 January 2025, there being no other attendance

AND UPON reading an email from info@farmerstoaction.org dated 27 January 2025 at 9:39am

AND UPON the Court being satisfied, on the evidence and submissions before it as to circumstances and investigations made by or available to the Claimants, that the Claimants have thereby taken all practicable steps to notify the Defendants of the Application prior to the return date of 29 January 2025 pursuant to section 12(1) and (2) of the Human Rights Act 1998

AND UPON the Court having carefully considered the grounds for the Application, the evidence and any arguable defences that might be raised by the Defendants and being satisfied that the Claimants have established, on the evidence filed by the Claimants, that: (1) the Claimants have a good cause of action in relation to each of the Distribution Centres and the Access Roads, in respect of which they are likely to succeed at trial pursuant to section 12(3) of the Human Rights Act 1998; (2) the Claimants have complied with the duty of full and frank disclosure; (3) there is sufficient evidence of a real and imminent risk of tortious activity and real harm; (4) there is no realistic defence to the claim; (5) there is a compelling justification for the injunctions sought; and (6) damages would not be an adequate remedy

AND UPON the Court being satisfied that the relevant procedural requirements for the grant of injunctions against "Persons Unknown" have been established by the Claimants on the evidence and that the terms of the Order are clear and appropriate and, in the circumstances, that it is just and convenient to grant the injunctions sought

AND UPON the Claimants confirming that this order is not intended to prohibit any lawful protest outside the Distribution Centres in so far as any such protest does not obstruct any of the pedestrian and vehicular entrances or exits to the Distribution Centres

AND UPON the Claimants giving and the Court accepting the undertakings set out in Schedule 3 to this order

AND UPON the Court giving an oral judgment
